She's got a pair of killer legs and a gorgeous face to match.

So it's no wonder Shanina Shaik showcased her best assets in a pair of bum-skimming denim shorts as she turned up to the Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival in Indio on Wednesday.

The 24-year-old model took to her Instagram account to show off her outfit choice, which also featured a white crop-top and a pair of camel desert boots, ahead of the music extravaganza.

The popular festival doesn't actually kick off until April 10 but it seems Shanina has got to the venue early in preparation for the exhausting two-day event, which will conclude briefly on April 12.

Busy times! The brunette beauty is clearly gearing herself up for the two-day weekend, which kicks off on April 10, but it is not known whether she'll attend the second weekend on April 17

Shanina Shaik stuns in low-cut lace dress at Carla Zampatti show

It's not known whether the beautiful star will attend the second weekend of the festival, which is a big hit with celebrities around the globe, that is held from April 17 until April 19.

However, the Melbourne-born babe is no stranger to dashing around the world for her career and was most recently seen at Carla Zampatti 50th Anniversary show in Sydney on Wednesday.

All eyes were on the stunner as she arrived at the glamorous show in a tight black lace dress from the Alex Perry SS15 collection but she was left red-faced when she accidentally flashed her bra.

However, Shanina's boyfriend Tyson Beckford, whom she has been dating for several years, did not join her for the trip and remained in the Big Apple.

Meanwhile, the Melbourne-born babe may spend a lot of time on board an aeroplane but she has admitted she manages to keep her body in fabulous form by eating a blood type diet.

She told April's issue of Harper's Bazaar: 'I base my diet around eating for my blood type, which for me means more protein and not so many carbs. I'm a big meat eater, which is recommended for my blood type - it's a lot of protein and vegetables for me.'
